

Health Care for the Poor: Two Views

Sr. Mary Diana Dreger, MD

Physician

Saint Cecilia Congregation

Society promotes caring for the poor because they are poor. Catholic healthcare professionals see care for the poor from a more fundamental motivation. Or do they? Using examples from the clinical practice of medicine, the secular and the religious views of healthcare for the poor will be considered. How can faithful Catholics contribute to a deeper understanding of healthcare and its reform for the good of women?